LOCAL MENTION.

The Weather. OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D.C., November 14, 1881, 10 a.m. For the middle Atlantic states, fair weather borthwest to southwest winds, stationary or rising barometer, and nearly stationary temperature.

Special Weather Bulletin, ANOTHER CLEAR DAY TO-MORROW INDICATED. The chief signal officer furnishes the following special bulletin to the press:—The disturbance which was central in the St. Lawrence valley yes terday morning has passed further to the east ward, and northwesterly gales continue in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. A cold wave has appeared in the northwest, where the temperature has fallen from ten to twenty degrees, and is below the mean for the month. The temperature has also fallen about ten degrees on the middle and South Atlantic coasts. It has risen slightly in the southwest. Northwest to southwest winds continue in all districts, except the gulf states, where the winds are light and variable. Local rains are reported from the lake region and fair weather from the remaining districts. The indications are that fair weather will continue during Monday and Tuesday in the middle states, and that colder fair weather will prevail in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and lake region during Tuesday, and frosts will probably occur in the interior of the gulf states during Tuesday night.

Many friends will sympathize with him in his affliction. The funeral took place today from St. Andrews' church. Major Brock, of the police department, is quite ill at his residence, No. 219 11th street southwest.

Rev. Father McCarthy, of the Immaculate Con-ception church, is quite ill at his residence of The interest in the revival services at Waugh M. E. church, Capitol Hill, increases each day. There have been over fifty conversions during the past week, and a large number entered into church membership last night. In noting the centennial coincidence attaching to the reopening last Sunday of St. Mary's (Catholic) church in Alexandria, the Virginia Free Press mentions Mr. Philip N. Dwyer, of this city, as su-perintending its remodeling. The young gentle-man named is a graduate of a Pennsylvania college, and to an inherent aptitude for his profession s added years of quiet, thoughtful study. The St. Dominic's convent in South Washington is an dmired specimen of his architectural genius. The will of the late Phillip Offenstein, bequeath-ing his property to the widow, was filed to-day. Parnell branch, No. 1, of the Irish Land League, met last evening at their hall, on 1st street, between I and K streets northwest. Several new members were added to the rolls, and some stirring speeches were made.

The District Commissioners. THE TALK ABOUT CHANGES-CANDIDATES IN THE

FIELD. The subject of Commissioners for the District of Columbia is one that has not yet been considered by President Arthur. It is the general impression that there will be changes, sooner or later, in the present board, but this impression does not grow out of anything that the President has said. It is only a deduction from the fact that changes among the District Commissioners have been made here tofore by new administrations. It is thought possible, however, that no changes may occur until the expiration of the terms of some of the present

There has been no late rush after a blace on the board of Commissioners. Papers have been filed with the President in behalf of one candidate, Mr. A. M. Clapp, which application is numerously and influentially endorsed. Several documents urging that a change be made in the present board of Commissioners have also been filed with the President, but they do not mention any people as successors. A number of applications which were sent in during President Garfield's administration, however, remain on hand, and it is generally understood that the applicants of that time are appli-cants now. These names are J. P. Klingle, Wm. Birney, Wm. Dixon, J. F. Olmstead, Sayles J. Bowen, J. C. Theaker, ex-Senator A. H. Cragin, W. H. Tenney, R. G. Stephens, S. E. Middleton, W. M. Holland, H. A. Hall and A. C. Richards. There is also on file an application from Isaac Cohen that he be made a District Commissioner.

WHAT COL. CORKHILL SAYS. A STAR reporter asked District Attorney Corkhill this morning if he had read or heard the rumor that he was to be displaced to-day by Elihu H. Root, of New York. "Yes," laughed the Colonel; "that appears to me absurd. I suppose it originated in the fact that Mr. Root came from New York with the President. At this time it appears to me absurd, but I have had no word from the President. I have not and do not intend to approach him in any way on this subject.

The New Secretary of the Treasury. JUDGE FOLGER SUCCEEDS MR. WINDOM.

This morning all the chiefs of bureaus and of diisions in the Treasury department called upon ex-Secretary Windom and took leave of him. Mr. Windom then drove to the Arlington, and returned with Judge Folger, his successor. Judge Folger ook the oath of office before Mr. George J. Coffin. clerk in the department, who is also a notary public. He was then introduced by the ex-secreary to Assistant Secretaries Upton and French The two latter officers then introduced him to the chiefs of bureaus and heads of divisions, who had returned from their offices, to which they repaired after taking leave of ex-Secretary Windom.

Society Notes. To-morrow will probably be fixed as the date for Mr. West, the British minister, to present his credentials to the President. No doubt he has been most anxious to do so, and he has been, so to speak, under an embargo until officially introduced to the President. According to diplomatic usage he not only could not accept invitations, but could make no calls on the other ministers, on all of whom—as he is the most recently arrived—it is his duty to call first, and as they, of course, observe the etiquette which entitles them to the first call from Mr. West none of them can call upon him. Thus through the President's absence he has been so far cut off from society. It is now hought probable that Miss West, who is expected ere within the next two months, will preside for her father at the British legation. She is said to be about nineteen years old and highly educated. Senator Call has taken the pleasant and tasteully furnished residence of Col. Wm. Wall, No. 123 10th street, and will keep house there during the winter. Mrs. Wall's many friends will be pained to learn that her health continues so poor as to compel her to give up the cares of housekeeping. She has taken apartments for the season at 939 M street. Invitations have been issued by Mr. Allan Mc ane for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Anne McLane, to Mr. John Cropper, which event will take place at the Church of the Ascension on the evening of Tuesday, November 22. A reception, with music and dancing, will follow. Senator and Mrs. Davis, of West Virginia, expect to arrive here on Saturday to remain during the session of Congress. Their daughter is visiting her friend, Miss Warfield, on Corcoran street. -Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins have gone to New York to meet his brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins, who have returned from Europe. --- Ex-
